

Sinclair Broadcasting Corps decision to try to influence a Presidential Election by forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election is an outrageous abuse of the public air waves. This should be a crime punishable by sending those responsible to prison. This isn't a bannana republic the last time I checked. Sinclair should be ordered by the FCC to cancel it's scheduled broadcast or to give equal time to the John Kerry campaign.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves for free, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. They are breaking the law by running a one-sided propaganda film attacking John Kerry and presenting it as legitimate news. Sinclair's actions show that we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to be scrutinized closely.

Thank you.
